CALLING ALL CARRS!

Penry Nichols, an orphan girl, has been befriended by rich old Uncle Caleb Carr. While on a sea voyage for his health, a telegram comes for Penry saying that Caleb has been married at sea and for her to inform the relatives. Arbella, the housekeeper who relays the message has a cold in her head and the relatives understand from her that Caleb has been "buried" at sea.

The Carrs rush to Caleb's house and frantically start searching for his will. The three Carr women, Fenella, Constance, and Elta quarrel violently over the antiques in the house and Caleb's deceased wife's diamond brooch. The will found hidden in Uncle Caleb's shabby old footstool reveals that Penry has been left the bulk of the fortune. All fly into a fury. Then Uncle Caleb suddenly steps in and presents Flossie—formerly Mrs. Florence Smiley—a "lovely" nurse, whom he had met aboard ship—as his wife.

Flossie is oh-so-sweet and wins over the family to her side. When Uncle Caleb later announces he isn't married at all, the Carrs concentrate on getting rid of Penry, main threat to their getting his millions. Madelyn Carr particularly hates Penry because she is a rival for the love of young Dr. Ted Wayland. Caleb loses his diamond brooch and Penry is framed for the act. When Caleb's health suddenly becomes much worse, the relatives intimate that perhaps Penry is poisoning him. Caleb orders Penry from the house.

Before Penry leaves, with the aid of Dr. Ted, she proves that Flossie is a notorious criminal and wanted by the police for feeding arsenic to five previous elderly husbands! The climax of the play brings a fiancé and a father to Penry, and frustration to all her enemies.

LET ME OUT OF HERE !

Bona Lynn and Eve Boyd work together as typists and share a little two-room apartment. Bona has a handsome brother that Eve would like to meet. Eve has a wealthy aunt who wants her to marry Gifford Morton, an eccentric poet and writer of children's stories. Eve wants to be independent and has led her aunt to believe that she is attending an exclusive girl's school when she is really earning a salary.

But Aunt Angela and Gifford are coming to pay Eve a visit! Eve isn't ready to be found out yet, so she and Bona go to ask a friend of theirs to pretend to be Eve's teacher so the Aunt will not ask too many questions. While they are out, Garret, Bona's brother, arrives with a friend, Victor Ward, who has come to town to close an important business deal for his father. While waiting for the girls, Victor tears his trousers and Garret goes out to have them mended, not realizing that it is a holiday. The snoopy landlady, Bessie Rhodes, almost discovers Victor, but he gets rid of her by wearing a kimono and head scarf and pretending to be one of the girls with a bad cold. Then Aunt Angela and Gifford come in--see Victor and think they are in the wrong apartment. They tell the landlady. . .she thinks Victor is a burglar. Victor has already frightened the comedy maid, Hazel Miles, into a faint. Garret comes back, is forced by Victor to change clothes with him. Victor goes out to make his appointment, leaving Garret in the same fix Victor was in! Then Victor's father arrives. . .dirty from changing a tire. While he is cleaning up, Garret steals his clothes to get even with Victor! Then . . .well there just isn't space here to describe all the hilarious things that happen in this hundred per cent, laugh-getting play. Even Stevie Cobb, the superstitious colored elevator boy gets mixed up in the tangle, which gets worse and worse until it seems that nothing can straighten it out. But all ends happily in a most amusing way.

This year we held our classes in the high school building. The change-over has been marked with enthusiasm on our part. The change of location has provided us with many opportunities that were not to be had before. The addition of the Industrial Arts course for the boys and a Home Economics class for the girls has made our curriculum more varied and more interesting than it was in previous years.

Although our social activities have been rather limited, we have had grand times at our weiner roasts and parties.

We have greatly enjoyed ourselves in athletics, the highlight of the season was the winning of the Waynesville Tournament.

We wish to extend our thanks to the administration, faculty, and student body of Kenney High School for the splendid cooperation we have received during the year; to the people of the community for their support and helpfulness; and to those in charge of the publication of this annual for the space they have so generously allotted to us.
